Lakeside High School

Hot Springs, Arkansas

Foreword

Dear Students and Faculty,

In producing the '61 Ram, the staff has endeavored to depict the real essence of Lakeside High School Life.

During the past 9 months, we have watched ideals turn to realities, dreams come true, and students and faculty members working together—graciously giving of their time, talent, energy, and spirit to make this a year to be remembered.

It has been our main objective to capture the scenes, memories, and qualities of Lakeside that will hold the most honored position in the hearts of each and every one of you.

I hope that we have succeeded, that this annual will serve each of you as a road-map to many happy highways of memories, and that it will ever become dearer to you as the years pass—helping keep alive the memories too precious to fade.

Sincerely,

Patti Lynn Hardin

Dedication

There are actually such a few ways for a student body to say "Thank You," and say it with all the meaning desired and deserved. This, in one sense, is only the best we can do—yet it is perhaps the biggest "Thank You" possible.

So, with this in our minds, and so much more in our hearts, we dedicate the '61 Ram to the man who gave us many of the best memories recorded in our annual, with the sincere hope that in each year of the future, our "Thanks" will mean just as much to him as he has meant to us during our high school years.

COACH CHICK AUSTIN

The Rams lay their dead to rest secure in the knowledge that we will meet them again.

Even as they are leaving, the Seniors, with the other students and the faculty members, turn sad thoughts to a very dear friend and associate—not quite understanding; yet accepting.

And so in loving memory and fond, never-ending devotion, we dedicate this page of our annual to

MR. CREED HIGNIGHT

. . . somehow feeling that he knows.

Belles of the ball???

Want a ride in my car?

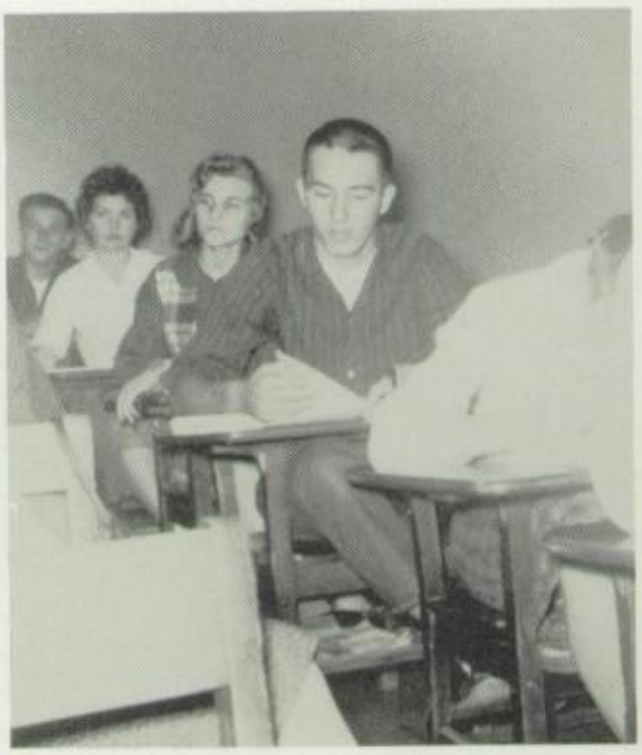
Lakeside's pride and joy.

Mother Erma! !

We wore our glad rags tonight!

Jo Ann and Neta studying???



Maybe I can see her answer.

Look at Larry go!

Slow down Rebecca!

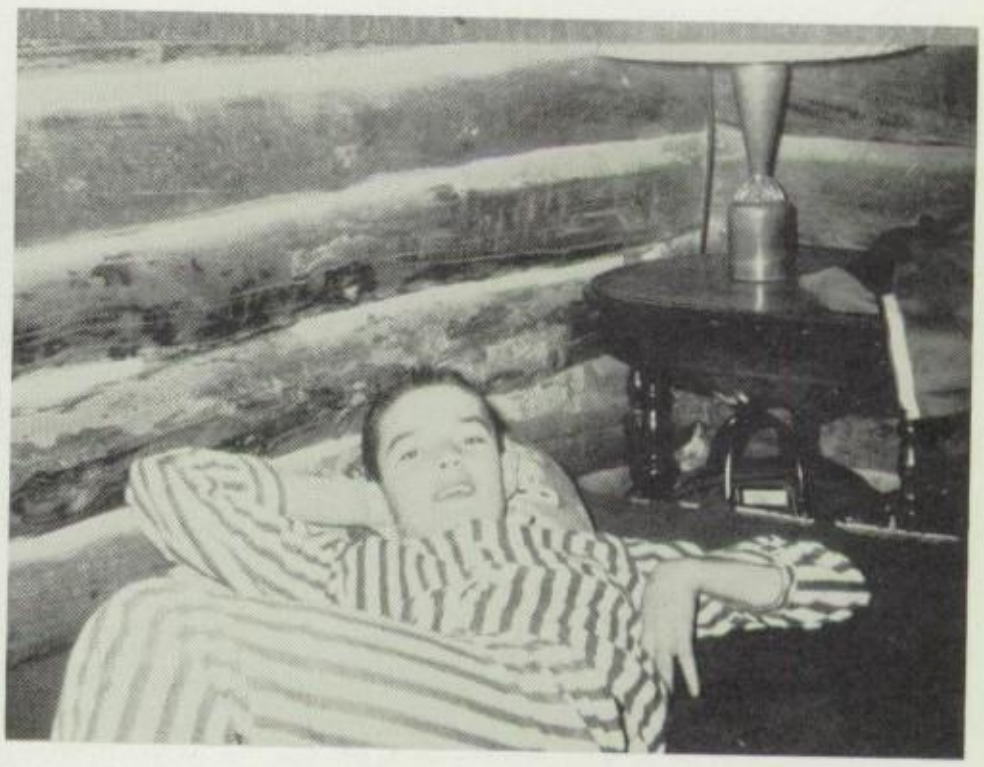
Dear Mr. Brown. . .

No wonder you can't read the school paper!

Patience Mrs. Rogers . . . patience.

A couple in love.

Someone has to go!



Man, this is the life!

I ain't done nothing.

We're nervous and we're tired.

Now tell Santa what you want, little girl.

Either he is too tall or she is too short!

Well . . . a . . . and uh . . . I think . . .

What's more interesting than Tony, Donna?

Coming in or going out??

Christmas fun with the Tennessee Waltz.

That tale couldn't be as bad as all that!

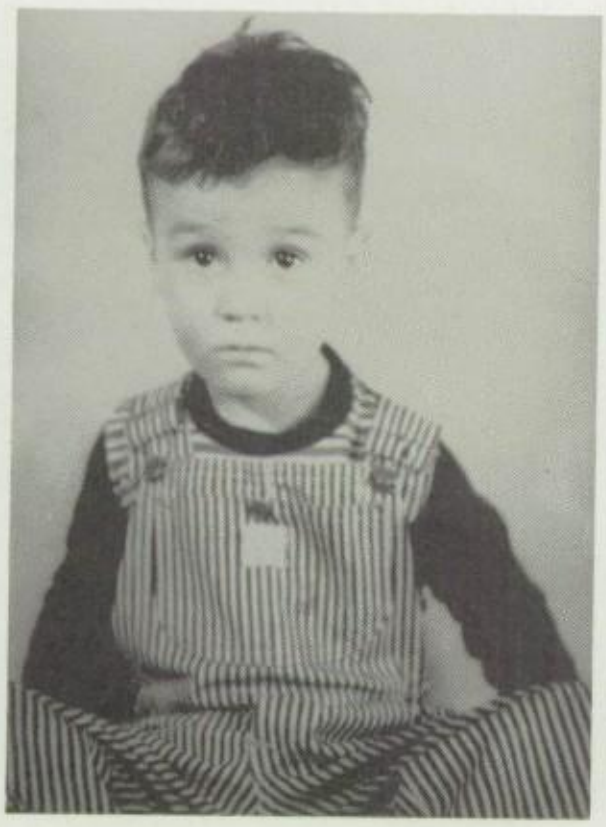
What? No boys?

Gee, just what I wanted! I only have 4 just like it.

Judy Bruhn? ?

I've been riding the range all day.

Devil in disguise!



Honest, Mommy, I didn't mean to.

Cattle rustling, Beverly?

I hope they can't find a match. If they do, I'm cooked!

Wanta play, too?

CHEEEEEEEESE! !

Ain't she sweet?

The spirit of Lakeside.

Joy to the world! !

Why, I wonder, do they look so happy?

I see you!

These are Lakeside's sweethearts.

Six pretty maidens all in a row.

Glamour queens?

Won't you come in and type a while?

Too bad there's not a game tonight! !

Who has the legs?

Gee whiz!

Mary Becton in her younger days.

Farewell

Thro' the halls, doors, and exits will pass the seniors of '61 for the last time.

We hear the doors to many happy hours and the treasured memories try to silently close behind us—yet the doors can never be completely shut, even as we are opening the new doors to the future and to whatever it may bring.
